By submitting this entry, I confirm that all phrases, lines, and characters are original and of my own creation (for example, I have not used Spider-Man, Pokémon, celebrities, etc., or a writing prompt where I have copied line(s) or phrases found in a book or online). I have not used generative AI (i.e. Chat GPT, Claude) in the creation of this entry. If a phrase is not my own, I have properly cited it using quotation marks and noted the source (i.e. author and title of work, including books, videos, games, media, TV, movies, etc.) in a footnote. If I have used the names of people I know, I have received their express written permission. If my poem was inspired by another poem, story, song, video game, YouTube video, movie, etc., I have provided the source in the "Additional Comments" section below or as an "Inspired by" line at the top of the poem. This work is not posted anywhere online, and I will not share it online until after June 2027 if it is accepted for publication. I have not submitted this work elsewhere recently and do not plan to submit it elsewhere in the near future (no simultaneous submissions).

Additional Comments to Judges (request special consideration due to disability, ESL, add citation, etc.):

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Please write a short paragraph (30-60 words) about yourself in the third person (Example: Susan Thomas enjoys writing, baking (and eating) cookies, and playing soccer. Her favourite book is The Martian and her favourite series is Harry Potter. Sue wants to become an author when she grows up. She loves her wonderful family and kitten, Charlie.). Please print as clearly as possible. If you are selected for publication, this information will appear in the "about the author" section of the anthology.

RULES:

- Please visit our Plagiarism/FAQs website page. All work must be original and will be checked for plagiarism. AI is NOT permitted in the creation of entries. Peer editing (same age or younger), typing for younger students, and any spelling corrections needed for legibility are permitted. No other editing should be done by older siblings/parents/teachers, etc. We expect to see errors.
- Entries should be typed (without graphics) using an 11-pt to 12-pt plain black font (Arial, Times, etc.) on 8.5" x 11" white paper.
- Entries should NOT have been previously published (including online postings). And NO simultaneous submissions. Please do NOT submit the same entry to another contest or magazine for publication at the same time.
- Poems must be 32 lines or less. Short stories must be 450 words or less.
- Each student may submit one poem and/or one short story only.
- Students may participate with their school or on their own, but a teacher contact and school information is still required. We recommend you tell your teacher to expect mail from us in early to mid-February 2027 (so it doesn't get discarded as junk mail).
- All entries must be submitted through our online form or mailed with an entry form/reasonable facsimile.
- Any topic is welcome, though the reading audience (the student's peers) should be considered.
- Please retain a copy of work entered as it will not be returned once it is submitted.
- All entries must be mailed (postmarked) or submitted online or before November 20, 2026.
- Entries may be submitted through our online form: <http://polarexpressions.ca/SubmitEntryOnline.html> (preferred) or by regular mail to Polar Expressions Publishing, PO Box 500 Stn Main, Maple Ridge BC V2X 3P2. If sending entries by mail, please include a completed copy of this entry form or a reasonable typed facsimile before each poem or story.
- ESL and students with disabilities are always encouraged to participate. Tell us in the "additional comments" section of the entry form to be given special consideration.

PRIZES:

- Over $9,000 in books and cash prizes will be awarded in June 2027 when the completed books are released!
- There will be $600 in bonus prizes for participating schools, selected through a random draw, for each contest. Schools will receive one bonus entry for each complete and original student entry.
- Approximately 33-45% of entries will be offered publication in a professionally printed and bound keepsake collection. This is an opportunity for students to receive recognition, relate to peers, and capture a moment in time.
- Students who make it through the first round will be mailed a letter of acceptance and an author's release to their home address (it's important to provide complete mailing information). If they return the author's release with a parent/guardian's permission signature by the date in the above-mentioned letter, their entry will then be typeset, and they will be published and move forward to the final round of competition to possibly win one of the merit-based prizes listed below.
- All first-, second-, and third-prize winners receive a free copy of the anthology and an award certificate with their prize. Their school will receive a matching prize.
- Schools that submit at least five complete entries to one contest (i.e. poetry) or have a prize-winning student will automatically receive one complimentary copy of any collection containing their students' work for their library (we deduct plagiarized entries and students offered publication who don't return permission, thereby withdrawing from the contest).
- All who enter receive a bookmark gift for participating. There are no losers!
- Educators will be sent a letter in early to mid February regarding their students' first-round results.

Bonus Prizes for Contests:

First Prize – School
$300

Second Prize – School
$200

Third Prize – School
